

ART INCLINED

Think 'income tax officer' and the image that comes to mind is that of someone with a no nonsense attitude...

News » [New Delhi \[India\]](#)

FOLLOWING THE HEART:

Think 'income tax officer' and the image that comes to mind is that of someone with a no nonsense attitude. Waise bhi who'd expect the 'Form 16' folks to have reserves of creativity? Well, we were proven wrong, when we met Sangeeta Gupta, who's an Income Tax official by profession but an artist by passion.

ART ATTACK:

Sangeeta's solo art show saw people from the art fraternity - artists, critics and gallerists - all coming together to support her. "This is my 24th solo exhibition, and I am taking it to Bangalore and Hyderabad too," she said.

BEYOND CANVAS:

From income tax to art, what's the connect, we asked. "Well, you can say that I was a bright student in school, who also participated in extra-curricular activities," Sangeeta explained.

SUMMING UP:

Throughout the event, guests were seen admiring her work and congratulating her on her efforts. Eminent poet and art critic Keshav Malik summed up her show in one line when he said, "Gentle gesture, flowing line and silken movement."

 Income tax officer, Nonsense attitude, Artist by passion, Solo art show, Solo Art exhibition, Bangalore, Hyderabad, CANVAS, Extra-curricular activities, Eminent poet and art critic
Keshav Malik